Gaudenzia Training Institute's

Mission Statement

The Gaudenzia Training Institute, operating since 1990, has a mission to educate the public about chemical dependency and related conditions.

Thus, the goals of our training institute are:

To enhance the services provided to the chemically dependent and/or co-occurring diagnosed individual through on-going education for treatment providers;

To share with the treatment community our knowledge and skills based on over 50 years of service for the chemically dependent, women and children, and/or co-occurring diagnosed persons;

To assist drug and alcohol treatment professionals in obtaining state honored education and;

To make a contribution towards upholding the standards of treatment, through the on-going education of treatment professionals.

Acknowledgements

The Gaudenzia Training Institute has been developed by and maintained through the efforts of a core group of Gaudenzia Staff known as the Training Committee. They have identified the various areas of expertise represented among our staff of approximately 1300 and have compiled that knowledge into written, presentable formats. They are applauded for their hard work and dedication over the years.
